

PIG THE STUDENT

by Levi White

Pig was a student and I'm sorry to say there's no way he'll get an A! Constantly getting distracted all day, it just seems like all he wants to do is play. The teacher's thoughts on that I'm sorry to say are a big fat , NO WAY.

The distractions that Pig displays are running on tables in non-hilarious ways and jumping on chairs and ruining the day. There's no way we can get an education with the way pig chooses to play.

Finally, we settled to start the day but pig the pug was still in the way. He jumped on the tables and began to sing being at school is not my thing.

The children were laughing the teachers was shocked. To the corner with you but he just didn't stop. Walking on schoolwork and singing his song pig the pug was ever so wrong.

After much distraction and ringing the gong the principal came to whip up pig he was terribly big but for pig it was the end of the game. To the principal's office he had to stay unfortunately for him it was the rest of the day.

When in the office the principal said shouldn't you be good instead? The answer from pig was a bit of a rig as he said he didn't do it, but we all know he did!

These days it's different I'm happy to say pig the pug has changed his way ... Believe it or not that fixed his grades. It's so much better at school these days. Pig the pug has learnt to play only at times when it's OK.
